DIPLOMAS ARE PRESENTED TO CLASS OF THIRTY-ONE

Commencement Exercise Held by Douglas Graduates

ADDRESS BY REV. STAPLES

Vacant Chair Draped for Leroy A. Hamilton Who Was Killed Sunday

Thirty-one graduates of Douglas BusinessCollege completed commercial and business courses and received their diplomas last night. Commencement exercises were held at School Hall. The address to the class was made by Rev. Arthur Staples. D. D. of McKeesport, formerly president of Beaver College and the diplomas were presented by Prof. Warren Douglas the head of the Douglas colleges.

A vacant chair was draped for the deceased member of the class Leroy Hamilton and the program was slightly altered out of respect for him. The class history was not read.

Rev. J. T. Hackett said the invocation Miss Clara Beigel as the salutatorian welcomed the friends of the graduates to the exercises in her address on the subject "Ill Find a Way or Make One," the class motto. She said that it takes men of brains to accomplish results today and that a definite aim is necessary in life.

An exhibition of touch tpyewriting was given under the direction of Miss Zella Franks, the shorthand teacher by Miss May Barth and Miss Ruth McCrory and Norman S. Hall. In a three minute exercise writing from dictation, Miss McCrory averaged 78 2-3 words a minute, Mr. Hall 68 2-3 words, and Miss Barth 66 2-3 words per minute, perfect copy. Writing while blindfolded was a part of the exhibition

Under the direction of Prof. Chas. Menz of the business department the class gave a demonstration of rapid calculation that was very creditable. Miss Ida Mary Good was the valedictorian, her topic being "The Power of Little Things." She said that great results proceed from little causes, and that to make the most of little things is to reach the greater attainments.

Rev. Arthur Staples in his address to the class took as his general theme "The Value of Preparation." He said that thoroughness is a necessity in the busy life of today and that it takes real men and women to accomplish results. He punctuated his most interesting talk with lively anecdotes and humorous stories and finished up by a little advice to the class in which he told them to make the most of their opportunities, and build up for themselves perfect "houses of character," that honor and respect of their fellow men be theirs, and that they themselves get the most from this earthly existance.

Prof. Douglas paid a warm tribute to the member of the class who was killed Sunday, in a brief address, and spoke of the esteem in which he was held by the class and faculty in general, He took the place of the class historian, J. B. G. Roberts in his address. He presented the diplomas preceding the benediction by Rev. L. W Shey, congratulating the class and voicing his pride that such a number should be graduated this year.

Music for the exercises was furnished by Bosson's orchestra, of Charleroi. The graduates who received their diplomas last night were:

NONE OF INJURED VICTIMS NOTIFIED YET OF DEATHS

Mrs. Hamilton Had Suspicion That Husband Was Dead--Physician Holds Out Much Hope

Dr. J. K. Smith, one of the physicians in charge of the patients at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital injured in the auto accident Sunday afternoon attended them this morning, and from their condition gave as his opinion that all would recover. He said that Anna Hamilton is in the worst shape, but her case is considered hopeful. According to Dr. Smith none of the people injured about the head will necessarily be unbalanced mentally should they recover.

The date of the coroner's inquest to investigate the death of William and Roy Hamilton, has been postponed by Coroner Heffran from tonight until some later date.

None of the injured persons at the hospital have been given an inkling yet that Mr. Hamilton and son are dead, and this news will not be made known to them for some time. Mrs. Hamilton, who is in a down stairs compartment and in the same room with Blanche Matheney, has a suspicion that her husband and son had been killed, because they were sitting in the front seat of the automobile but this suspicion was offset by the hospital authorities to some extent. Anna Hamilton, her brother Robert and sister Mary are all in the same compartment up stairs. Mary was little injured, and is exceedingly bright, but even she does not know of the tragedy or even of the extent of her mother's injuries All are conscious the greater part of their waking hours, but are not allowed to talk much.

LUTHERANS BEAT METHODISTS IN A GOOD BATTLE

Hit At Opportune Times and Are Aided in Efforts By Errors

The Methodists were beaten by the Lutherans last night by the score of 4 to 2 in what proved to be a very interesting game. The Lutherans got three circuits in the third inning. Balza cracked out a two baser and Herbert Mason of the Baptists, doing the catching, singled. Herbert stole and Joe Mason after two were down lined out one for three sacks, bringing in Herbert. Balza came in on the former swipe and Joe Mason got in when Mitchell dropped Butz's fly. The Lutheran's other tally came in the sixth inning, when Quinto got a base on balls, stole second and third, and came home on the dropped fly of Demarco's, by Mitchell. The Methodists scored their two runs in the fourth inning. Proten singled, so did Riggs, and so did L. Bege, scoring Proten. Riggs was caught at home on a throw from deep right. Snyder singled scoring L Bege. The score:

AUTO VICTIMS ARE LAID TO REST IN HOWE'S CEMETERY

Sad Funeral Held at Roscoe for Father and Son

CLASS ATTENDS IN BODY

Roscoe Presbyterian Church Packed to Limit with Friends of Hamiltons

One of the saddest funerals ever following a tragical ocurrence similar to that of Sunday afternoon when W. H. Hamilton and his son Roy were killed in an automobile accident, was held at the Roscoe Presbyterian church yesterday over the two bodies. Services were conducted by Rev. G. G. Kerr of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church of Charleroi, for Rev. Theodore Hunter, the Roscoe pastor. Interment was in Howe's cemetery. The only relatives of the two present were the mother, a brother and two sisters of Mr. Hamilton. Other relatives are on their way from Illinois, but were unable to reach here in time. Both bodies were mangled somewhat and that of Roy was very much cut about the head and chest.

The Douglas Business college graduating class with Superintendent M. Adams and Prof. Warren Douglas at the head, attended in a body. The floral offerings were many and the church was crowded to its utmost limits by friends of the Hamiltons.

Both Mr. Hamilton and his son were prominent in church work having been members of the church from where they were buried. Mr. Hamilton was a member of the official board.

Another Mikado Song

The continuing success of the revival of the opera "Mikado" at the Casino Theatre, Broadway, New York, has led the New York World to publish another Mikado song. This time it will be "The Moon and I," one of the sweetest songs in the opera which has lived for over twenty years. The words and music of this song arranged for popular use, will be given free with next Sunday's New York World.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our appreciation and thanks to our many friends for their services and sympathy during the sickness and death of our daughter and sister, Mrs. Martha Johnston, and for the many and beautiful floral tributes. All are remembered and appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Planton, and family. 2661t

Dance at Eldora

"Married Folks," a club composed of Monersen people, gave a dance at Eldora Park last night which was attended by about 70 couples. A fine time was enjoyed, Jenkins Orchestra furnishing the music.

Bond Issue Carries

The special election at Monongahela yesterday for the issue of $15,000 in bonds to complete the new Lincoln school house carried five to one. A light vote was polled.

Frank C. MacHale left this morning for Akron, Ohio, where he will join tomorrow the Erie team, of the O. and P. League. MacHale was in the O. and P. league last year previous to which he played for Charleroi.

L. W. Shey, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, Charleroi, in the presence of a few guests. Miss Ella Parrott of Millvale, a sister of the bride and Alex Thompson of Charleroi, were the attendants. A weddings supper was served for the couple after the wedding, and the couple left last evening on a trip to the east, after which they will return to Charleroi to take up their residence. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Fries, pastor of the church in the presence of a large company of friends. The attendants of the couple were Miss Phylis Dean, a sister of the bride, and Robert Claybaugh, a brother of the groom. A wedding breakfast was served to the couple by the groom's mother at her home on Washington avenue and they left later on a trip to Cleveland, Ohio, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and other points for a visit. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Chaleroi. The couple are favorites among a large circle of friends and acquaintances. More Deadly Than War

According to figures made public at the offices of the State Railroad Commission at Harrisburg yesterday 99 people were killed and 774 injured on the railroads of Pennsylvania last month, and 17 were killed and 359 hurt on the electric lines. Trespassers form a large item in the fatalities.

Yesterday by way of comparison the Mail quoted some statistics of the causalties of some of the leading battles of the Revolutionary War to emphasize the causalties of Fourth of July celebrations. The same figures can be used in comparison with the casualties of the railroads and trolleys of Pennsylvania. It is startling to realize that in one year in our State the railroads and trolleys killed and injured more people than were killed and wounded in seven important battles of the Revolutionary War. The official figures of killed and wounded in these battles are: Lexington 83; Bunker Hill, 449; Fort Moultrie, 37; White Plains, 100; Fort Washington, 149; Monmouth, 229; Cowpens, 72. Total, 1,119. Against these are the killed and injured of the railroads and trolleys in Pennsylvania last year: Railroads, 873; trolleys, 376; total, 1,249.

This is a ghastly comparison, and when it is considered that a very large proportion of these casualties is due to trespassing, it will be seen that these fatalities can be very materially reduced. The efforts of the Pennsylvania Railroad company to protect the public by arresting trespassers has caused a storm of protest all along the line, but the cold figures show that the move is most beneficent.

Get Ready

Every indication points to a big demonstration here on the Fourth. The various committees appointed to promote the celebration have performed their work, and it now remains for individual action to supplement that of the organization in the matter of final preparation. A big crowd will be in Charleroi on that date, and every effort will be made to welcome the hosts and show them a good time.

One thing for residents of the town to remember is that the stores and business places are all likely to be closed on the Fourth, and any shopping or purchasing that remains to be done should be executed as early as possible. In this respect the holiday resembles Christmas, when it is advisable to shop early to avoid the rush. From now on the public should make all necessary preparations and not wait for the final rush Saturday night. By getting an early start better service will be rendered all around.

An exchange is authority for the statement that man is a fool. Considering that he is a weather crank, always wanting what is not, and continually arguing with himself that he is not a fool, it is conceded that he is.

Some newspapers make as much of a fuss over a firm passing into the hands of a receiver as others do of a divorce case.

There's one thing nice about a business college commencement. They don't usually puzzle the mind with a lot of unintelligable Latin or Greek phraes, which they call their motto.

One reason many girls do not want their parents to buy property along the street car line is because the headlight of the cars is too bright and traitorous at night.

One reason for hope that the areoplanes do not become too common, is that if they should, there is bound to be some fellows learn how to run them, whose talent consists principally in being able to rock the boat.

Gift For Those Going Abroad.

A pretty and convenient little gift to make for the friend who is going abroad is in the form of a linen envelope about an inch longer and wider than the picture postcards which are so popular.

Green or blue linen may be used and the words "Postal Cards" embroidered in the outline stitch on the front of the envelope. You can embroider your friend's initials on the flap, which fastens with a button and loop.

The envelope is bound with white ribbon and makes a dainty case for the foreign postal cards.

DIPLOMAS ARE PRESENTED TO CLASS OF THIRTY-ONE

Commencement Exercise Held by Douglas Graduates

ADDRESS BY REV. STAPLES

Vacant Chair Draped for Leroy A. Hamilton Who Was Killed Sunday

Thirty-one graduates of Douglas BusinessCollege completed commercial and business courses and received their diplomas last night. Commencement exercises were held at School Hall. The address to the class was made by Rev. Arthur Staples. D. D. of McKeesport, formerly president of Beaver College and the diplomas were presented by Prof. Warren Douglas the head of the Douglas colleges.

A vacant chair was draped for the deceased member of the class Leroy Hamilton and the program was slightly altered out of respect for him. The class history was not read.

Rev. J. T. Hackett said the invocation Miss Clara Beigel as the salutatorian welcomed the friends of the graduates to the exercises in her address on the subject "Ill Find a Way or Make One," the class motto. She said that it takes men of brains to accomplish results today and that a definite aim is necessary in life.

An exhibition of touch tpyewriting was given under the direction of Miss Zella Franks, the shorthand teacher by Miss May Barth and Miss Ruth McCrory and Norman S. Hall. In a three minute exercise writing from dictation, Miss McCrory averaged 73 2-3 words a minute, Mr. Hall 68 2-3 words, and Miss Barth 66 2-3 words per minute, perfect copy. Writing while blindfolded was a part of the exhibition

Under the direction of Prof Chas. Menz of the business department the class gave a demonstration of rapid calculation that was very creditable. Miss Ida Mary Good was the valedictorian, her topic being "The Power of Little Things." She said that great results proceed from little causes, and that to make the most of little things is to reach the greater attainments.

Rev. Arthur Staples in his address to the class took as his general theme "The Value of Preparation." He said that thoroughness is a necessity in the busy life of today and that it takes real men and women to accomplish results. He punctuated his most interesting talk with lively anecdotes and, humorous stories and finished up by a little advice to the class in which he told them to make the most of their opportunities, and build up for themselves perfect "houses of character," that honor and respect of their fellow men be theirs, and that they themselves get the most from this earthly existance.

Prof. Douglas paid a warm tribute to the member of the class who was killed Sunday, in a brief address, and spoke of the esteem in which he was held by the class and faculty in general. He took the place of the class historian, J. B. G. Roberts in his address. He presented the diplomas preceding the benediction by Rev. L. W. Shey, congratulating the class and voicing his pride that such a number should be graduated this year.

Music for the exercises was furnished by Bosson's orchestra, of Charleroi. The graduates who received thair diplomas last night were:

NONE OF INJURED VICTIMS NOTIFIED YET OF DEATHS

Mrs. Hamilton Had Suspicion That Husband Was Dead--Physician Holds Out Much Hope

Dr. J. K. Smith, one of the physicians in charge of the patients at the Monessen-Charleroi hospital injured in the auto accident Sunday afternoon attended them this morning, and from their condition gave as his opinion that all would recover. He said that Anna Hamilton is in the worst shape, but her case is considered hopeful. According to Dr. Smith none of the people injured about the head will necessarily be unbalanced mentally should they recover.

The date of the coroner's inquest to investigate the death of William H. and Roy Hamilton, has been postponed by Coroner Heffran from tonight until some later date.

None of the injured persons at the hospital have been given an inkling yet that Mr. Hamilton and son are dead, and this news will not be made known to them for some time. Mrs. Hamilton, who is in a down stairs compartment and in the same room with Blanche Matheney, has a suspicion that her husband and son had been killed, because they were sitting in the front seat of the automobile but this suspicion was offset by the hospital authorities to some extent. Anna Hamilton, her brother Robert and sister Mary are all in the same compartment up stairs. Mary was little injured, and is exceedingly bright, but even she does not know of the tragedy or even of the extent of her mother's injuries All are conscious the greater part of their waking hours, but are not allowed to talk much.

LUTHERANS BEAT METHODISTS IN A GOOD BATTLE

Hit At Opportune Times and Are Aided in Efforts By Errors

The Methodists were beaten by the Lutherans last night by the score of 4 to 2 in what proved to be a very interesting game. The Lutherans got three circuits in the third inning. Balza cracked out a two baser and Herbert Mason of the Baptists, doing the catching, singled. Herbert stole and Joe Mason after two were down lined out one for three sacks, bringing in Herbert. Balza came in on the former swipe and Joe Mason got in when Mitchell dropped Butz's fly. The Lutheran's other tally came in the sixth inning, when Quinto got a base on balls, stole second and third, and came home on the dropped fly of Demarco's, by Mitchell. The Methodists scored their two runs in the fourth inning. Proten singled, so did Riggs, and so did L. Bege, scoring Proten. Riggs was caught at home on a throw from deep right. Snyder singled scoring L Bege. The score:

Sad Funeral Held at Roscoe for Father and Son

CLASS ATTENDS IN BODY

Roscoe Presbyterian Church Packed to Limit with Friends of Hamiltons

One of the saddest funerals ever following a tragical ocurrence similar to that of Sunday afternoon when W. H. Hamilton and his son Roy were killed in an automobile accident, was held at the Roscoe Presbyterian church yesterday over the two bodies. Services were conducted by Rev. G. G. Kerr of the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church of Charleroi, for Rev. Theodore Hunter, the Roscoe pastor. Interment was in Howe's cemetery. The only relatives of the two present were the mother, a brother and two sisters of Mr. Hamilton. Other relatives are on their way from Illinois, but were unable to reach here in time. Both bodies were mangled somewhat and that of Roy was very much cut about the head and chest.

The Douglas Business college graduating class with Superintendent M. Adams and Prof. Warren Douglas at the head, attended in a body. The floral offerings were many and the church was crowded to its utmost limits by friends of the Hamiltons.

Both Mr. Hamilton and his son were prominent in church work having been members of the church from where they were buried. Mr. Hamilton was a member of the official board.

Another Mikado Song

The continuing success of the revival of the opera "Mikado" at the Casino Theatre, Broadway, New York, has led the New York World to publish another Mikado song. The words and music of this song arranged for popular use, will be given free with next Sunday's New York World.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our appreciation and thanks to our many friends for their services and sympathy during the sickness and death of our daughter and sister, Mrs. Martha Johnston, and for the many and beautiful floral tributes. All are remembered and appreciated.

More Deadly Than War

According to figures made public at the offices of the State Railroad Commission at Harrisburg yesterday 99 people were killed and 774 injured on the railroads of Pennsylvania last month, and 17 were killed and 359 hurt on the electric lines. Trespassers form a large item in the fatalities.

Yesterday by way of comparison the Mail quoted some statistics of the causalties of some of the leading battles of the Revolutionary War to emphasize the causalties of Fourth of July celebrations. The same figures can be used in comparison with the causalties of the railroads and trolleys of Pennsylvania. It is startling to realize that in one year in our State the railroads and trolleys killed and injured more people than were killed and wounded in seven important battles of the Revolutionary War. The official figures of killed and wounded in these battles are: Lexington 83; Bunker Hill, 449; Fort Moultrie, 37: White Plains, 100; Fort Washington, 149; Monmouth, 229; Cowpens, 72. Total, 1,119. Against these are the killed and injured of the railroads and trolleys in Pennsylvania last year: Railroads, 873; trolleys, 376; total, 1,249.

This is a ghastly comparison, and when it is considered that a very large proportion of these casualties is due to trespassing, it will be seen that these fatalities can be very materially reduced. The efforts of the Pennsylvania Railroad company to protect the public by arresting trespassers has caused a storm of protest all along the line, but the cold figures show that the move is most beneficent.

Get Ready

Every indication points to a big demonstration here on the Fourth. The various committees appointed to promote the celebration have performed their work, and it now remains for individual action to supplement that of the organization in the matter of final preparation. A big crowd will be in Charleroi on that date, and every effort will be made to welcome the hosts and show them a good time.

One thing for residents of the town to remember is that the stores and business places are all likely to be closed on the Fourth, and any shopping or purchasing that remains to be done should be executed as early as possible. In this respect the holiday resembles Christmas, when it is advisable to shop early to avoid the rush. From now on the public should make all necessary preparations and not wait for the final rush Saturday night. By getting an early start better service will be rendered all around.

An exchange is authority for the statement that man is a fool. Considering that he is a weather crank, always wanting what is not, and continually arguing with himself that he is not a fool, it is conceded that he is.

Some newspapers make as much of a fuss over a firm passing into the hands of a receiver as others do of a divorce case.

There's one thing nice about a business college commencement. They don't usually puzzle the mind with a lot of unintelligable Latin or Greek phraes, which they call their motto.

One reason many girls do not want their parents to buy property along the street car line is because the headlight of the cars is too bright and traitorous at night.

One reason for hope that the areoplanes do not become too common, is that if they should, there is bound to be some fellows learn how to run them, whose talent consists principally in being able to rock the boat.

TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness. Profit by Charleroi People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy—puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles, or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old time health and vigor will return. Cures in Charleroi prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. John Wilson, Third street, Charleroi, Pa., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Piper Bros.' Drug Store, have been used in our family for backache and other symptoms of kidney trouble and they have always brought great relief. I took this remedy years ago for disordered kidneys and in view of the good results I received, I recommend it highly."

Gift For Those Going Abroad.

A pretty and convenient little gift to make for the friend who is going abroad is in the form of a linen envelope about an inch longer and wider than the picture postcards which are so popular.

Green or blue linen may be used and the words "Postal Cards" embroidered in the outline stitch on the front of the envelope. You can embroider your friend's initials on the flap, which fastens with a button and loop.

The envelope is bound with white ribbon and makes a dainty case for the foreign postal cards.
